About Adult Learners (2 clock hours)

CLASS DESCRIPTION: This training is designed for trainers, adult educators and child care directors. Adult learners are very different from children. Therefore, it is important that training is geared towards their particular needs and dispositions. This class reviews basic principles and practices for teaching adults.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES: As a result of this training, participants will be able to:

- Identify what motivates adult learners
- State the different learning styles of adult learners
- State and give examples of the complexity of adult learning

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING:

I liked the discussions on answering questions asked by children.

– Kelly M., KY

The resources you listed were really helpful.

– Joyce K., OK

I found the explanation and clarification of what true anti-bias means very useful.

– Amanda C., NH

I found all of it very useful. Taking this class taught me so much versus the ECE classes taken in person. This class really made me work and think.

– Jennifer H., NV
