BULLIES: HOW TO MANAGE AND PREVENT THEIR BEHAVIOR ONLINE CLASS (2 clock hours)

CLASS DESCRIPTION: Although bullying has been a problem for a long time, it is only recently that studies are showing the huge toll that it takes on the social and emotional lives of children. This class will help you understand why bullying occurs and give you techniques for responding to this behavior.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES: As a result of this training, participants will be able to:

- Define bullying behavior
- List characteristics of bullies
- Give examples of ways to respond to victims
- Give examples of ways to respond to bullies and teach skills

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING:

I enjoyed learning the games that are intended to teach the children to work together. It seems logical that this could help diminish some bullying.

– Ashley F., KY

I will be using several things that I learned from this class, like the cards with positive things on them about the child.

– Deanna T., MO

I liked reading about signs of bullies and what to watch for and how to handle them. I really liked reading about empathy and actually teaching kids about feelings not only the feelings of others but being able to handle their own feelings and understand why they are feeling like they are.

– Dawn T., NV

I found the section where I had to respond to certain scenarios really helpful! It made me think of situations I would be in, here at my center, and now I can handle and respond to them better.

– Devon O., PA
