PROUD TO BE A PROFESSIONAL! ONLINE CLASS (3 clock hours)

CLASS DESCRIPTION: This training is designed for both child care providers and leaders. Participants will explore the meaning of professionalism while expanding their own growth as a professional.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES: As a result of this training, participants will be able to:

- Identify the characteristics of a professional
- List the four main areas of responsibilities in NAEYC's Ethical Code of Conduct
- Identify the multiple roles of a professional
- Assume or expand one of the professional roles
- Complete a Personal Development Record and chart a course for professional growth
- Identify reasons child care is not viewed as a profession
- Take steps to enhance their professional image

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING:

I found the class overall encouraging and supportive because as providers we work very hard! I think sometimes it does go unrecognized.

– Britney P., GA

Making it known that I am a professional - in order to be treated as one, I need to ensure my room, my look, and my manners all show professionalism.

– Melissa D., PA

All of it was a good reminder for me. It also helped me to refocus my thoughts, regarding how I want to run my center.

– Jennifer H., NV

The information about the ethics and the guidelines that you should follow are very useful.

– Melissa C., SC
